

LGBTQ FORUM FOR GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL STUDENTS

Wednesdays from 4-5 PM | Jan 5 - Mar 9 | Winter 2022

This forum is meant to create space for community development and a sense of belonging. The content is directed by community members and is often focused on LGBTQ and/or graduate and professional student issues. Examples include personal and professional relationships, queer topics in the academic and media, intersectionality, minority stress, feeling connected during strange times, and coping with imposter syndrome.

- Romantic, personal, digital & professional relationships
- Queer topics in the academy & media
- Intersectionality & Minority Stress
- Coping with issues like imposter syndrome, career & finding meaning

To see if this forum is a good fit for you, please contact
Dr. Tyler Hatchel at thatchel@health.ucsd.edu

Jasmin Ashby
(they/them/theirs or she/her/hers)

GAPSWell Associate
Public Health & Human
Longevity MPH Program

José Delgado
(he/him/his)

GAPSWell Associate
Bioengineering
MS Program

Tyler Hatchel, Ph.D.
(he/him/his)

Psychologist
Counseling and Psychological Services

Thomas Liu
(he/him/his)

GAPSWell Associate
(alum)
Molecular Biology
MS Program

THESE MEETINGS ARE NOT PROFESSIONAL COUNSELING. IF YOU WOULD LIKE PROFESSIONAL COUNSELING OR MENTAL HEALTH TREATMENT, PLEASE CALL THE CAPS CENTRAL OFFICE AT (858) 534-3755 TO ARRANGE AN APPOINTMENT.

CAPS4GAPS
Counseling and Psychological Services for Graduate and Professional School Students

GAPSWell Associates
UC San Diego

LGBT
RESOURCE CENTER

TRITONS
FLOURISH

UC San Diego
GRADUATE DIVISION